A: You can draw on canvas using JSNI method: jfloat *CreateDynamicallyGeneratedTexture(int w, int h) It's used for loading dynamic texture. You can use it by creating new canvas, draw on it and call CreateDynamicallyGeneratedTexture() on this new canvas. But I think more suitable option is to use HTML5 CanvasRenderingContext2D (just create canvas and draw on it). Use this documentation: Example: A: You can use canvas api: it is much more better way to do it. A: If you need to have a dynamic resolution, and it is acceptable to duplicate the canvas and write to it, you can use: context.drawImage( , ); There are a lot of good resources for making a canvas dynamically: Kagiasoun-Neromiglia Kagiasoun-

This stunningly designed and gorgeous edition of the Song of Songs will leave you breathless! Over 1,700 pages of exquisitely illustrated pages will transport you into the world of Sapphira, a woman whose desire to measure up to the standards of her elders made her a laughingstock in a society where showmanship was an essential part of life. This lavish edition includes an elegantly decorated oversize cover, as well as over 3,000 full-color illustrations, 60 full-color maps, and 7 lavish 12-page illustrated books. These artistic illustrations depict scenes from the life of Sapphira from a variety of different perspectives, and her interactions with a number of people, including friends and foes. When a war of passion erupts between two lovers and sparks a torrid affair, Phoebe and Matthew find themselves on the edge of disaster. As dark forces begin to circle, Phoebe and Matthew discover how dangerous the secrets of the heart can be. To survive, they must deny the love they long for and enter into a marriage without love. Description: In Black's provocative and controversial second novel, a sexy wife left abandoned by her husband begins to learn the meaning of power in the most intoxicating of all ways—by using it. Inspired by her erotic encounters with other men, Alexis is inspired to become not only a working professional, but also a slut. With her lover in tow, she embarks on a bold quest to seize what she so desperately wants: the erotic thrills, power, and glory that come with conquest. Over the course of a year, she uses sex as a weapon to force her husband to choose between her and their children. As he struggles to reestablish his relationship with his family, Alexis' assault on his sanity escalates, testing the bounds of his endurance and leading to a stunning crisis of faith. But for the courageous woman who dared to betray him and for the faithful man who triumphed over a family he might have destroyed, there is one thing that cannot be taken away—love.
